Re: United States v. Burrell, et al., 15-cr-00095-AJN-27

Dear Judge Nathan:

I represent Mark Williams, a sentenced defendant in the above referenced matter, and write further to the Court's order of yesterday's date seeking a response to Williams' letter to the court requesting various materials in his case. Prior to Williams' sentencing, I routinely provided him with copies of all relevant correspondence, including (but not limited to) his pre-sentence report, my and the government's submissions and periodic updates of the docket entries in this case. Because I understand that Williams' personal belongings, including his legal papers, have yet to be forwarded to the institution where he is currently lodged, by letter today I provided him with a second set of the materials previously furnished him. The transcript of Williams' plea is yet to be available, but once it is, I will forward a copy to him as well.

Sincerely,

COZEN O'CONNOR
